Creating new contacts, building a great network, connecting different NGO to share, explore Erasmus+ Programme and inspire youngsters. Contact Making Event called Project's Kins(women) will be held in Murzasichle, Poland from 22nd to 28th of September 2017. It will bring together youth workers from 12 countries. Through this project we aim to provide participants with instruments and guidelines for successful implementation and participation in Erasmus Plus projects. Using tools and methods of non-formal education we will present to the participants project management competences. We will also create a space, during the CME to build new long-lasting partnerships among project partners. The certificate Youthpass will be used to recognize competences gained by our participants. As a final result we will create new projects within Erasmus Plus Programme.

Our objectives are:

- To improve participant's project management competencies
- To network with participants and their organizations
- To create space for building and creating new international initiatives for and with youth with Erasmus Plus frame
- To create a framework for sharing of good practices and peer learning related with non-formal education methods and tools
- To provide up-to-date information about the Erasmus+ Program
- To promote multiculturalism and values of tolerance and equality;
- To present to the participants the examples of efficient cooperation in the sector of youth
